

EIM

EMPLOYEES OF INSTITUTIONS MORTGAGE SAVINGS ACCOUNT

PRODUCT OVERVIEW:

Is a local currency savings account tailored for employees of institutions, with the primary aim of facilitating the purchase or construction of residential houses, acquiring automobiles, or any other purpose. Deposits can be made in both local and/or foreign currency.

Key Features

- Reserved for employees of institutions, ensuring eligibility for this specialized savings account.
- Couples have the option to open a joint EIM savings account, fostering collaborative financial planning.
- Applicants must be 18 years and above, allowing for a broad range of eligible participants.
- An attractive interest rate of 7.15%, maximizing the growth of savings.
- Open the account with zero balance, with the requirement to deposit the initial savings within one month.
- Receive a passbook after making the initial deposit, with subsequent deposits accepted at any time.
- Eligibility for loan facilities designed specifically for EIM Savings Account holders.
- Foreign currency credits to this savings account are converted to local currency, ensuring seamlessness.

BENEFITS

- The Employees of Institutions Mortgage (EIM) Savings Account offers a range of benefits tailored to meet the unique financial objectives of employees of institutions.

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES:

This account is exclusively available for employees of institutions.

TARGET CUSTOMERS

- Individuals that work in a company.

CROSS SELLING PRODUCTS

- Retail saving products
- EIM loans

REMARKS

EIM Savings Account, embarks on a journey towards acquiring wealth just by salary.